

being known do not require the objectionable side wire. They are more readily stored, are suitable for every description of work, and are made of the best materials. They are also made in various sizes, and with different alterations, are particularly adapted for the country and for exportation.

There is also an extensive stock of new furniture in rhinoceros, ornamental amber, and agate glass, buffalo horn, ivory, ebony, brass, &c., in suite, with American glass, B-B pulls, and levers, new and altered, and a large stock of new and altered leather goods, and either to sketch or pattern supplied very promptly.

For example, in three days, and a more elaborate one in five, and a large stock of new and altered leather goods, and either to sketch or pattern supplied very promptly.

From the proprietors and sole manufacturers, HART and BIRNIE, Wholesale Ironmongers, 55, 56, 57, Wyndham Street, Strand, London.